Profile

My motivation to move into Data Science was gained through my studies at London Business School, where I studied the Business of Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning. During this course, we reviewed many case studies about the companies like Deutsche Bank, T-Mobile, Vodafone, Dominos and Schneider Electric and how they transformed their businesses with the help of A.I. and ML.

The value I will bring to an organization includes a comprehensive skill set developed through my academics. During my Master's degree, I have also accomplished many real-life projects few of them are below mentioned.

Projects

1. Image classification with CIFAR10 data set: CNNs, LSTMs, R.N.N.s.
2. Boston crimes Prediction: Time Series (ARIMA & SARIMA)
3. Sales Prediction and stock optimization for American Retailer: Long short-term memory (LSTM).
4. Google Analytics Customer Revenue Prediction: Linear Regression & Gradient Boosting
5. J.F.K. Flights – Delay Prediction: DecisionTreeClassifier & RandomForestClassifier.

Department: Management

I started my own business in June 2019 after identifying a gap in the market to import organic coconut products to the U.A.E., which, if successful, would then be exported to Africa. With COVID taking hold in the winter of 2019, getting this business up and running as planned proved challenging. I decided to pursue further studies in Data Science and join an esteem organization to use my Data Scientist Skills.
